SUBJECT : DRESS OF THE ADVOCATES.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to this office letter of even Number dated 15.04.2019 on the subject mentioned above and to say that the Rule 33 of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987 provides as follows:-

"33. Dress of the parties – A legal practitioner or, as the case may be, a presenting officer shall appear before the Tribunal in his professional dress, if any, and if there is no such dress.

- i. If a male in a closed, collared coat and trousers or in a lounge suit;
- ii. If a female, in a saree or any other customary dress of a sober colour."

The above mentioned Rules prescribes that a legal practitioner has to appear before the Tribunal in his professional dress, if any. The professional dress prescribed for the advocates in Delhi High Court requires them to wear black gown while appearing before the Hon'ble Court and this forms a part of their professional dress. Hon'ble Chairman has, therefore, desired that Learned Advocates appearing before the Tribunal shall wear a black gown on the same pattern as in High Court with immediate effect. However, with the outset of summer, wearing of black gown may be dispensed with in line with similar practice in Delhi High Court.

You are, therefore, requested to bring it to the notice of all the Members of CAT Bar Association.

Yours sincerely,

(S.P.S Rowat)
Deputy Registrar(JA)
