In addition, circuit sittings are held at Aizwal, Auangabad, Agartala, Bilaspur, Gangtok, Goa, Gwalior, Imphal, Itanagar, Indore, Jammu & Kashmir, Kohima, Nagpur, Nainital, Pondicherry, Port Blair, Ranchi, Shimla, Shillong.

The Central Administrative Tribunal has been established for adjudication of disputes with respect to recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to public services and posts in connection with the affairs of the Union or other local authorities within the territory of India or under the control of Government of India and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. This was done in pursuance of the amendment of Constitution of India by Article 323A.

In the statement of objects and reasons on the introduction of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, it was mentioned that the setting up of such Administrative Tribunals exclusively would also provide to the persons covered by the Administrative Tribunals speedy and relatively inexpensive and effective remedy.

In addition to adjudicating service matters of Central Government employees, the Government of India has notified in all, 214 organizations/units to bring them within the jurisdiction of the Central Administrative Tribunal. The provisions of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 do not apply to members of paramilitary forces, armed forces of the Union, officers or employees of the Supreme Court, or to persons appointed to the Secretariat Staff of either House of Parliament or the Secretariat Staff of State/Union Territory Legislatures.

A Chairman who has been a sitting or retired Judge of a High Court heads the Central Administrative Tribunal. Besides the Chairman the authorized strength consists of Judicial as well as Administrative Members. As on date sanctioned strength of Hon'ble Members in the Tribunal is 65.

In terms of The Administrative Tribunals (Amendment) Act, 2006, published in the Gazette of India. Extraordinary, Part-II Section-I dated the 2nd January 2007, "the conditions of service of Chairman and Members shall be the same as applicable to Judges of the High Court".

The Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Expenditure has amended the above Rules, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 184 of the Finance Act 17 (7 of 17). These Rules may be called the Tribunal, Appellate Tribunal & other authorities Rules (Qualification, Experience and other conditions of service of Members) Rules 2017.

They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official Gazette and shall apply to the Chairman/Vice chairman, Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, President, Vice President, Presiding Officer, Accountant Member, Administrative Member, Judicial Member, Expert Member, Law Member, Revenue Member, Technical Member, Member of the Tribunal, Appellate Tribunal or as the case may be, Authority as specified in column (2) of the English Schedule of the Finance Act, 2017 (7 of 2017) effective from 01.06.2017.

After the constitution of the Tribunal in 1985, in the beginning under section 29 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 the Tribunal received on transfer from the High Courts and Subordinate Courts 13,350 cases, which were pending there.

The Tribunal follows the principles of Natural Justice in deciding cases and the procedure prescribed by Evidence Act or CPC does not apply. The Tribunal is also a specialized organization which deals with only service matters in respect of the Central Government employees and other employees of organizations notified under Section -14 of the Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985. The Central Administrative Tribunal is doing its best to expedite the disposal of cases. Where the pendency of cases is on the higher side in any Bench, Members are deputed from other Benches to that Bench for wiping out the pendency. The Central Administrative Tribunal is empowered to prescribe its own Rules of Practice for discharging its functions subject to the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 and Rules made there under. For this purpose, the Central Administrative Tribunal Rules of Practice, 1993 have been notified.

Similarly, for the purpose of laying down a common procedure for all Benches of the Tribunal, the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987 have been notified. Under Section 17 of the Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985, the Tribunal has been conferred the power to exercise the same jurisdiction and authority in respect of contempt of itself as a High Court.

The employees of the Central Administrative Tribunal are required to discharge their duties under the general superintendence of the Chairman. Salaries and allowances and conditions of service of the officers and other employees of the Tribunal are specified by the Central Government. Pursuant to these provisions the Central Government has notified the Central Administrative Tribunal Staff (Conditions of Service) Rules, 1985.

Vision, mission and objectives of the Organization:

Vision:

The Tribunal being a Judicial Organization has decided to bring down the pendency of cases in all the benches of the Tribunal and to deliver Natural Justice at the door step of the litigants. Steps have been taken to dispose of the oldest pending cases inter-alia that of senior citizens.

Apart from above, the office has originated an ambitious Plan/Scheme for modernization and computerization of its activities through a new dynamic website, Case Information System, Video Conferencing etc. This project on completion will facilitate the litigants, lawyers, researcher and public in general to access the orders and judgment of the Tribunal on real time basis besides efficient maintenance and management of records. Steps have also been taken for e-granthalaya.

Mission & Objectives:

To ensure capacity building at all levels including and supporting a culture of transparency and accountability and to continue zero tolerance against indiscipline and corruption in public affairs, and to make the functioning of the Tribunal both on Administrative and judicial side more efficient and responsive and to put in best talent in the organization inter-alia to maintain speedy disposal with quality of judgments and orders.
